The Japanese Church of Christ confirms Rev. Andrew Fleishman as Pastor

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, October 4, 2024 - In a unanimous vote on September 29, 2024, the members of the Japanese Church of Christ (JCC) confirmed Reverend Andrew Fleishman as their permanent pastor.

Rev. Fleishman most recently served as Associate Pastor for the last 7 years at Wasatch Presbyterian Church in Salt Lake City, Utah. He is a member of JCC's Kenshin Taiko drumming group which shares its talents at community events around the state. His pastoral journey began in 2001 with campus ministry.

"I am asking God to guide my steps in order to truly serve the Japanese Church of Christ," said Rev. Fleishman. "My degree of joy is matched only by my desire to do all I can for God and JCC."

Rev. Daniel Haas has been serving the Japanese Church of Christ as its part-time interim pastor for the last two and a half years. He will continue serving as Chaplain at Intermountain Health and Chaplain in the U.S. Army Reserve.

Rev. Fleishman's start date is October 15, 2024.

About the Japanese Church of Christ:

The Japanese Church of Christ was established in Salt Lake City's Japantown in 1918. Its current chapel at 268 West 100 South, Salt Lake City, UT, recently celebrated its 100-year anniversary. The Church is federated with the Presbyterian Church (PC USA) and the United Church of Christ (UCC). See jccslc.net for more information.
